

Wilderness Wander - Sunday 2nd July.

Take a walk on the wild side with family and friends, next Sunday, 2nd July at the Wilderness Garden Shirley between 11am and 2pm.

Find out more about this award winning historic garden with a Trees4Croydon Guided Tour at 1.30pm with Lucy James the Garden Services Manager who will tell us all about Rev Wilkes founder of the garden who created the world famous Shirley Poppy! Enjoy the Flower Fairy Trail that plays tribute to the Croydon born author and illustrator Cicely Mary Barker.

Tickets are free and you are welcome to bring your own drinks and snacks or buy tea coffee and cake in the Wilderness Cabin.

Toilets on site and well behaved dogs on a short lead are welcome.

The garden is open from 11am.
